

BREAST CANCER NURSING

CARE AND MANAGEMENT

EDITED BY
VICTORIA HARMER

SECOND EDITION

10034861

ห้องสมุด วทบ.สุรินทร์

 WILEY-BLACKWELL

Contents

Preface	vii
Foreword by HRH The Prince of Wales	ix
Words of Encouragement for Nurses from Stella McCartney	x
Contributors	xi
Acknowledgements	xiii
1 An Overview of the Breast and Breast Cancer	1
Elisabeth Grimsey
2 The Histopathology of Breast Cancer	19
Helen E. Froyd and Victoria Harmer
3 Genetic Factors in Breast Cancer	35
Audrey Ardern-Jones
4 Breast Screening	58
Ann-Marie Fretwell (previous contribution by Linda Lee)
5 Surgery for Breast Cancer	81
Victoria Harmer
6 Physiotherapy for Patients with Breast Cancer	103
Helen Macleod and Pauline Koelling
7 Breast Reconstruction	122
Nicola West
8 Chemotherapy as a Treatment for Breast Cancer	149
Elaine Lennan (previous contribution by Joan Klein née McCoy)
9 Radiotherapy as a Treatment for Breast Cancer	173
Karen Burnet
10 Endocrine Treatment for Breast Cancer	190
Deborah Fenlon and Kay Townsend

11	Lymphoedema and Breast Cancer Mary Woods	215
12	Fungating Wounds Victoria Harmer (previous contribution by Rachael King)	232
13	Advanced Disease Elizabeth Sumner	251
14	Complementary and Alternative Therapies Rosemary Lucey	282
15	Psychological Issues for the Patient with Breast Cancer Jane Rogers and Mary Turner	309
16	Survivorship Issues Carmel Sheppard	329
17	Specialist Nursing Roles: What Are the Challenges? Emma Pennery	342
	Index	355

Colour plate section follows page 114