

Mental Health Nursing A Manual for Practice

Ruth Elder, Katie Evans, Debra Nizette, Steve Trenoweth

Foreword by: Ian Peate

10039032

ห้องสมุด วพบ. สุรินทร์

CHURCHILL
LIVINGSTONE
ELSEVIER

 eolve
learning system

- Multiple Choice Questions
- True/False Questions
- Case Studies

Contents

Foreword	vii
Preface	ix
Contributors	xi

Part 1: Preparing for mental health nursing

1. The effective nurse	3
2. The context of practice	15
3. Historical foundations	33
4. The politicolegal context	53
5. Professional and ethical issues	71

Part 2: Mental health and wellness

6. Mental health and wellness	87
7. Theories on mental health and ill health	103
8. Mental health across the lifespan	119
9. Crisis and loss	141
10. Assessment and diagnosis	161

Part 3: Understanding mental health problems

11. Learning disabilities	191
12. Working with children and young people	213

13. Mental disorders of older age	227
14. Schizophrenic disorders	245
15. Mood disorders	267
16. Personality disorders	289
17. Anxiety disorders	307
18. Eating disorders	331
19. Substance-related disorders and dual diagnosis	355
20. Somatoform and dissociative disorders	377

Part 4: Developing skills for mental health nursing

21. Settings for mental healthcare	399
22. Person-centred approaches to managing risk	421
23. Therapeutic interventions	445
24. Psychopharmacology and medicines management	473
25. Physical health	497

Glossary	521
Index	533