REVIEWS

507 Integrative Review of Lower Extremity Nerve Injury During Vaginal Birth

In the included articles, the incidence of lower extremity nerve injury was 0.3% to 1.8% among vaginal births.

Martha Rider Sleutel, Barbara True, Jennifer Webb, Ericka Valdez, and Mary Van Thi Tran

525 Integrative Review of Reproductive Decision Making of Women Who Are BRCA Positive

This synthesis showed a lack of knowledge among clinicians regarding the reproductive decision-making process of women who are BRCA positive.

Elizabeth Skrovanek, Jacqueline Dunbar-Jacob, Colleen Dunwoody, and Susan Wesmiller

537 Systematic Review of Contraceptive Use Among Sex Workers in North America

The reliance of sex workers on condoms and factors that limit reproductive agency over decision making contribute to high potential for contraceptive failure.

Jessica L. Zmlak, Anna P. Bryant, and Noelene K. Jeffers

RESEARCH

549 Predicting Postpartum Hemorrhage After Low-Risk Vaginal Birth by Labor Characteristics and Oxytocin Administration

Oxytocin administration increases women's odds for postpartum hemorrhage when administered for longer than 4 hours during spontaneous labor and longer than 7 hours for labor induction.

Elise N. Erickson and Nicole S. Carlson

564 Multisite Randomized Controlled Trial of Bladder Management in Labor With Epidural Analgesia/Anesthesia

Bladder management after epidural analgesia/anesthesia during labor requires additional study to support vaginal birth and minimize risk of urinary tract infection.

Amy Dempsey, Cyndy Krening, and Laura Vorgic

571 Perceptions of African American Women and Health Care Professionals Related to Pre-Exposure Prophylaxis to Prevent HIV

Autonomy and access were the most influential factors for African American women considering the use of pre-exposure prophylaxis.

581 Women's Experiences of the Effect of Financial Strain on Parenting and Mental Health

Women with young children may experience financial strain, which contributes to mental health problems.

Lucy E. Marcil, Jeffrey I. Campbell, Katie E. Silva, Diána Hughes, Saraf Salim, Hong-An T. Nguyen, Katherine Kissler, Michael K. Hole, Catherine D. Michelson, and Caroline J. Kistin

593 Tool to Enhance Relationships Between Staff and Parents in the Neonatal Unit

The You and Your Baby Nursery Guide helped to transform relationships between parents and staff and facilitate the delivery of family-centered, developmentally supportive care.

Abbey Louise Eeles and Deanna Gibbs
