

JOURNAL OF PSYCHOSOCIAL NURSING® AND MENTAL HEALTH SERVICES

February 2011 Volume 49, Number 2

วารสารใหม่ประจำเดือน
มกราคม .....2555.....

COMING OUT OF THE SHADOWS

Shedding light on treatment for problematic sexual behaviors

The big D-bate

Is there a link between vitamin D and depression?—page 15

Interactive intervention

Psych nurses' use of a human patient simulator—page 38

Journal of psychosocial..
SERIALS

001209
bib:13399108125

1,300 bath

SLACK®
INCORPORATED

EARN 4.0 CONTACT HOURS PAGE 44

Pharmacology Focus

- 15 Vitamin D and Depression
Robert H. Howland
- 8 Product Update
- 13 Clip & Save: Drug Chart Hypertension

Original Articles

24 Mental Illness and Problematic Sexual Behaviors: A Review of the Recent Literature

Research on treatment for sex offenders with comorbid mental illnesses is lacking—be aware of the challenges that may snarl successful outcomes.

Marco Belluardo-Crosby

29 Development of the Edmonson Psychiatric Fall Risk Assessment Tool

A general hospital-based fall risk instrument may not be sufficient for your inpatient psychiatric unit. The EPFRAT could help keep your patients upright.

Deborah Edmonson, Sherry Robinson, and Larry Hughes

38 Improving the Quality of Care of Veterans with Diabetes: A Simulation Intervention for Psychiatric Nurses

Read how one VA medical center's human patient simulator intervention increased nurses' clinical judgment.

Stephanie D. Wynn

Sections

- 2 Guidelines for Authors
- 5 Letter to the Editor
- 6 Guest Editorial
- 9 Commentary
- 10 News
- 19 Telepsychiatry for Children and Adolescents
Erin Ellington and Teena M. McGuinness
- 44 CNE Quiz
- 48 NARSAD Art

