EDITORIAL

1 Interprofessional Collaboration and Co-publishing

The editor explores the meaning of interprofessional collaboration in relation to JOGNN's co-publishing opportunities.

Nancy K. Lowe

RESEARCH

3 The Role of Peer Support in the Development of Maternal Identity for "NICU Moms"

Mothers identified the NICU-based breastfeeding peer counselors as critical sources of peer support and role modeling during their infants' NICU hospitalizations.

Beverly Rossman, Michelle M. Greene, and Paula P. Meier

17 Health Care Providers' Perspectives of Providing Culturally Competent Care in the NICU

Fragile interactions with new immigrant families are often compromised by cultural differences in decision-making, norms and beliefs, language and communication, and unintentional stereotyping.

Leonora Hendson, Misty D. Reis, and David B. Nicholas

28 Prevention of Deformational Plagiocephaly in Hospitalized Infants Using a New Orthotic Device

Rotating a cranial cup with a moldable positioner may provide a safe and potentially efficacious therapy for prevention of deformational plagiocephaly.

Michele DeGrazia, Deborah Giambanco, Gretchen Hamm, Amy Ditzel, Lindsay Tucker, and Kimberlee Gauvreau

42 Grief Intensity, Psychological Well-Being, and the Intimate Partner Relationship in the Subsequent Pregnancy after a Perinatal Loss

This cross-sectional descriptive analysis showed that greater grief intensity from a previous perinatal loss was associated with significant negative psychosocial experiences in a subsequent pregnancy.

Marianne H. Hutti, Deborah S. Armstrong, John A. Myers, and Lynne A. Hall

51 Prevalence and Factors Affecting Breastfeeding Among Aboriginal Women in Northwestern Ontario

Many of the factors identified that were associated with any and exclusive breastfeeding among this at-risk population are modifiable and amenable to intervention.

Karen McQueen, Lee E. Sieswerda, William Montelpare, and Cindy-Lee Dennis

69 Essential Competencies in Nursing Education for Prevention and Care Related to Unintended Pregnancy

Using a Delphi method with a national expert panel, the researchers identified 27 core nursing educational competencies for unintended pregnancy prevention and care.

Caroline Hewitt and Joyce Cappiello

77 Use of a Web-based Education Program Improves Nurses' Knowledge of Breastfeeding

In this national sample of nursing students, nurses, and advanced practice nurses, knowledge increased in all domains after completion of the online program, Breastfeeding Basics.

Barbara J. Deloian, Linda Orkin Levin, and Mary E. O'Connor
