

Cited in MEDLINE/PubMed

SPECIAL ISSUE

Seclusion & Restraint

10-Year Report of Successful Reduction Strategies

Multinational experiences in reducing and preventing the use of seclusion and restraint
Implementation of an innovative model—page 22

Efforts to prevent seclusion and restraint use in child and adolescent programs

The importance of family and youth perspectives for improving outcomes—page 30

Reducing seclusion and restraint in inpatient settings

The role of hospital leadership and staff in changing practices—page 40

SPECIAL ISSUE

SECLUSION & RESTRAINT: 10-YEAR REPORT OF

SUCCESSFUL REDUCTION STRATEGIES

Guest Editor: Kevin Ann Huckshorn, PhD, RN, ICADC

Pharmacology Focus

- 9 Product Update
- 11 Clip & Save: Drug Chart Pain Conditions
- 13 Pharmacogenetic Testing in Psychiatry: Not (Quite) Ready for Primetime
Robert H. Howland

Original Articles

22 Multinational Experiences in Reducing and Preventing the Use of Restraint and Seclusion

The Six Core Strategies® model was successfully implemented in settings across the United States, Europe, and Australia.

Janice L. LeBel, Joy A. Duxbury, Anu Putkonen, Titia Sprague, Carolyn Roe, and Joanne Sharpe

30 Successful Seclusion and Restraint Prevention Efforts in Child and Adolescent Programs

The voices of families and youth served are essential to improving program practices and outcomes.

Beth Caldwell, Chantell Albert, Muhammad W. Azeem, Susan Beck, David Cocoros, Trish Cocoros, Raquel Montes, and Bhagya Reddy

40 Reducing Seclusion and Restraint Use in Inpatient Settings: A Phenomenological Study of State Psychiatric Hospital Leader and Staff Experiences

Nurses play an important role in implementing evidence-based practices to reduce events that lead to the use of seclusion and restraint.

Kevin Ann Huckshorn

Sections

- 3 Guest Editorial
- 5 Commentary
- 7 News
- 17 Postoperative Cognitive Dysfunction in Older Adults: A Call for Nursing Involvement
Jeanne M. Sorrell
- 48 CNE Quiz
- 52 NARSAD Art
- C3 Information for Authors

