MEDSURG Nursing Journal Seeks Manuscript Reviewers

MEDSURG Nursing, the Official Journal of the Academy of Medical-Surgical Nurses, needs adult-health/medical-surgical nurses in private practice, acute, general, long-term, and outpatient health care settings, and other professionals with expertise in adult health/medical-surgical nursing to join its Manuscript Review Panel.

Reviewers evaluate the accuracy and relevancy of information in submitted manuscripts. When possible, reviewers evaluate the research designs of submitted studies. The review panel position has no monetary reimbursement but, perhaps, some glory.

If you are interested, please visit the journal's web site www.medsurgnursing.net and complete the Manuscript Reviewer application.
