

English for Nursing

1

Vocational English
Course Book

6.N8
52E
3
C.1

10041435

ห้องสมุด วพบ. สุรินทร์

Ros Wright and Bethany Cagnol
with Maria Spada Symonds
Series editor David Bonamy

CD-ROM

Contents

| | | Function | Language | Vocabulary |
|------------------------------|--|--|---|--|
| Unit 1 Meeting colleagues | Introducing yourself to the team p. 4 | Introducing yourself to the nursing staff | Present simple of be Present simple | Nursing personnel |
| | Reading a nursing schedule p. 6 | Discussing a schedule | Telling the time Prepositions of time: at 7 a.m., in the morning, etc. | Hospital facilities |
| | Meeting patients and their visitors p. 8 | Meeting patients and their visitors Asking visitors politely to do/not to do things | Imperatives | Family members: mother, father, son, daughter, etc. |
| | Escorting a patient for tests p. 10 | Escorting a patient for tests Checking that a patient feels comfortable | Ordinal numbers, dates | Medical equipment: X-ray machine, CT scanner, etc. Blanket, trolley, walking stick, wheelchair |
| Unit 2 Nursing assessment | Checking patient details p. 12 | Spelling a patient's name Checking patient details for a patient record | Wh- questions | Patient record: surname, gender, marital status, etc. |
| | Describing symptoms p. 14 | Describing symptoms Asking about symptoms | Be + adjective Feel + adjective Have + (adjective +) noun | Symptoms: cough, dizzy, earache, etc. |
| | Assessing common childhood diseases p. 16 | Describing common childhood diseases | Adverbs of frequency | Common childhood diseases: rubella, mumps, measles |
| | Taking a blood sample p. 18 | Carrying out a blood test Distracting and reassuring a patient during a blood test | If you ..., let me know. | Items for taking a blood sample: antiseptic wipe, cotton ball, etc. |
| Unit 3 The patient ward | Monitoring body temperature p. 20 | Taking a patient's temperature Treating a patient with hypothermia | Making polite requests | Thermometers: digital thermometer, disposable thermometer, etc. |
| | The patient ward p. 22 | Explaining where the rooms and areas in a patient ward are | Prepositions of place: down, on, next to, etc. There is/There are | Parts of a patient ward: clean supply room, conference room, nurses' lounge, etc. |
| | Nursing duties p. 24 | Explaining the ward facilities Describing a busy day | Present continuous Present continuous for future arrangements | Verbs: fill in, look for, consult, feed, etc. |
| | The qualities of a responsible nurse p. 26 | Responding to a call light (buzzer) | Be + adjective | Expressions for calming a patient Negative adjectives |
| Unit 4 Food and measurements | Hospital food and beverages p. 28 | Ordering food from a hospital menu | A/An, some with countable and uncountable nouns Like, would like | Food and beverages: cheese omelette, apple juice, etc. |
| | Measurements and quantities p. 30 | Asking and answering questions about a patient's diet | Numbers Metric conversions How much/How many, much/many with countable and uncountable nouns | Weights and measures: litres, calories, kilograms, etc. |
| | Helping a patient order from a hospital menu p. 32 | Helping a patient order from a hospital menu | Asking and answering questions about what to eat | Verbs: breathe, chew, drink, swallow |
| | Assisting the patient at mealtimes p. 34 | Encouraging and praising a patient | Expressions of encouragement and praise | Specialised utensils: non-slip plate, two-handled cup, etc. |

| | | Function | Language | Vocabulary |
|---|--|--|--|---|
| Unit 5 The body and movement | The body: limbs and joints p. 36 | Explaining to a patient how to do exercises after surgery | Imperative | The body: limbs and joints: arm, finger, ankle, etc. |
| | The body: torso and head p. 38 | Explaining the benefits of exercise to a patient | Prepositions of place and movement When + clause + it helps | The body: torso and head: back, chest, hip, etc. Verbs of movement: tighten, bend, push, etc. |
| | Setting goals and giving encouragement p. 40 | Setting goals and giving encouragement | Comparative adjectives | Adjectives: strong, easy, difficult, etc. |
| | Documenting ROM exercises p. 42 | Assessing a patient's range of motion (ROM) | Talking about what a patient can/cannot do | ROM exercises: flexion, extension, adduction, etc. |
| Unit 6 Medication | Medication routes and forms p. 44 | Explaining how to take medication | Prepositions: into the ear, by mouth, on the skin, under the tongue | Forms of medication: capsule, drops, injection, etc. Medication routes: (into the) ear, (by) mouth, etc. |
| | Dosages and frequency p. 46 | Calculating the dosage and frequency of medication Reading prescriptions | Expressions of frequency | Arithmetical symbols Medical terms and abbreviations for prescriptions |
| | Side effects; assisting patients with medication p. 48 | Explaining possible side effects Helping a patient manage medication | May, might | Common side effects of medication: dizziness, diarrhoea, etc. |
| | Communicating with relatives by phone p. 50 | Taking telephone messages for a patient | Will | Telephone expressions |
| Unit 7 The hospital team | Moving and handling patients p. 52 | Explaining what you are going to do and why Giving clear instructions to a patient Encouraging a patient to co-operate | The future: be going to, will | Equipment for moving and handling patients: banana board, hand blocks, etc. |
| | Communicating with team members by phone p. 54 | Communicating with team members by phone | Past simple of be | Telephone words and phrases: take a message, extension, caller, etc. |
| | Ordering supplies p. 56 | Checking inventory and ordering supplies | Any, enough | Medical stock: gauze, surgical tape, scissors, etc. Specimen tube of blood, bottle of disinfectant, etc. |
| | Giving simple safety instructions p. 58 | Talking about safety in a hospital | Past simple: regular verbs Expressing obligation: always/never + if clause | Apron, disposable gloves, eye protection, mask, sharps box |
| Unit 8 Recovery and assessing the elderly | Caring for a patient in the recovery room p. 60 | Checking up on a patient after surgery Explaining what happens to a patient in recovery | Past simple: irregular verbs | Asking about pain |
| | Removing sutures p. 62 | Explaining to a patient how sutures will be removed | Sequencers 'Softener': just | Equipment for removing sutures: apron, cleansing solution, etc. |
| | Talking about old age p. 64 | Talking about old age | Offering advice and making suggestions | Care home facilities and activities: garden, TV room, exercise programme, etc. |
| | Assessing an elderly care home resident p. 66 | Assessing an elderly care home resident | Question review | Aids: commode, dentures, glasses, grabber, etc. |

Partner files p.68

Audio script p.72